Principal Statement of Terms and Conditions of Employment Academic Staff

Employer: The University of Manchester
Oxford Road
Manchester
M13 9PL

Employee: Dr Dominik Winterer
Im Struppen 21
Zurich
Switzerland
8048

Date of issue: 12 May 2025 – Revised 01 September 2025

The main terms and conditions of your employment are set out below as required by the Employment Rights Act 1996.

Job Title and Duties

- 1 You are employed as Lecturer in Cyber Security.
- 2 Your duties are included in the attached job description which may from time to time be amended by the University. If you are engaged in (i) a teaching & research (T&R) role (ii) a teaching (T) role or (iii) a Research (R) role, you may be transferred to either one of the other roles for the whole or part of your working time. In addition you may be required to undertake additional or other duties consistent with your position as necessary to meet the needs of the University. This may include performing services in the pursuance of your duties, not only for the University but also for any of its subsidiary organisations.
- 3 If you are engaged in, or transferring to, a T&R or R role you are expected to undertake research of the highest quality and to continually seek to raise your level of research activity to world leading standards of excellence. Our statement of Research Expectations can be read at <http://documents.manchester.ac.uk/display.aspx?DocID=26130>. Our Research Strategy can be found at <http://documents.manchester.ac.uk/display.aspx?DocID=26131>. You are expected to publish outputs that are assessed as internationally excellent or world-leading and to apply for and secure external funding, the value of which will be determined in discussion with your line-manager and in line the norms of your discipline. You should ensure that opportunities for your research to achieve economic, social, cultural or other impacts beyond academia are realised through a combination of creative dissemination and engagement plans.
- 4 You are expected to comply with any rules and regulations which the University may from time to time issue to ensure the efficient operation of its business and the welfare and interests of its employees and students.

Commencement date and duration

- 5 Your employment will commence on 01 September 2025.
- 6 Your period of continuous employment will begin on 01 September 2025. No other employment with a previous employer counts as part of your period of continuous employment with the University.

Probationary Period

- 7 You are required to complete a probationary period of 4 years from the date of commencement of employment to 31 July 2029, during which your suitability for the position for which you have been appointed will be assessed<sup>1</sup>.
- 8 The first year of appointment of a person who assumes duty between 1 August and 31 January inclusive is deemed to end on 31 July immediately following. The first year of the appointment of a person who assumes duty between 1 February and 31 July inclusive is deemed to end on 31 July of the following calendar year.
- 9 During the probationary period you are required to attend the University's teaching and learning course for new academic staff (the "New Academics Programme"). More information here. Satisfactory completion of the course is a pre-requisite for satisfying the probationary period and forms part of the process of assessment of teaching performance prior to confirmation of appointment.
- 10 The University reserves the right to extend your probationary period if, in its opinion, circumstances so require.
- 11 During your probationary period, your employment may be terminated either by you or the University on giving three calendar month's written notice.

Place of Work

- 12 Your normal place of work will be the School of Engineering. However, you may be required to work on either a temporary or an indefinite basis at any premises which the University currently has or may acquire, or at any premises at which it may from time to time provide services.
- 13 You are not currently required to work outside the United Kingdom for a period of more than one month.

Working Hours

- 14 You will be expected to work such hours as are necessary for the proper discharge of your duties and responsibilities, with a notional minimum of 35 hours per week.
- 15 You will be entitled to a lunch break which is unpaid and must be for at least half an hour on each full working day.

Salary

- 16 Your post is Grade 7 which has a salary range of £47,389 to £58,225 per annum for full-time staff.
  - 17 Your commencement salary will be spine point 40 which is £51,753.00 per annum (This has been pro rated in line with your hours if you are part time).

Contracts (Rights of Third Parties)

82 A person who is not party to this agreement has no rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of this agreement but this does not affect any remedy of a third party which exists or is available apart from that Act.

Signed on behalf of The University of Manchester:
